Conſtantinople, October 3.

IN Return for the Preſents received from Algiers by the Deputy of that Regency, the Grand Seignor has given them ſome Cannon and Ammunition, with a Liberty to purchaſe any other Stores.

Turin, October 25, N. S. Count de Canales, his Sardinian Majeſty's Envoy to the Court of Vienna, who has been here ſome Time on his private Affairs, intends to ſet out in a Week or ten Days on his Return to that Court.

Stockholm, Nov. 1. Advice having been received that the Ruſſians had given Orders for diſarming their Ships of War at Cronſtadt and Revel, the like Orders, with reſpect to our Fleet, have been ſent from this Court to Carelſcroon; and a Stop has alſo been put to the Preparations which were making for ſending a large Body of Troops into Finland. The Baron de Hopken, whom the King has appointed his Miniſter to the King of Poland, as Elector of Saxony, in the room of the Baron de Greiffenheim, having received his laſt Inſtructions, ſet out a few Days ago for Dreſden. The Marquiſs de Grimaldi, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Court of Spain, is arrived here, and has already waited on his Majeſty and the Prince Succeſſor.

Vienna, Nov. 1, N. S. Several Expreſſes have arrived at Schonbrun within theſe few Days paſt, and divers Councils have been held to deliberate on their Diſpatches. The Regiment of Schulenbourg, and that of Saxe-Gotha, are of the Number of thoſe who are ordered to march into Italy. The Chevalier de Tron, the new Venetian Ambaſſador, had his firſt Audiences of their Imperial Majeſties on the 30th paſt, in which he delivered his Credential Letters. We have received Advice that Count Brown, Governor of Tranſilvania, was arrived at Hermanſtadt on the 20th of laſt Month.

Copenhagen, Nov. 3. Amongſt the Promotions made by the King on the Occaſion of the late Jubilee, his Majeſty conferred the Order of the Elephant on the eldeſt Son of the Duke of Holſtein Sonderbourg; and the Count de Danneskiold Samſoe, Count Scheele, Count d'Iſenbourg, and Major General Ulrichſdalh, had the Order of Dannebrock conferred on them. The Duke of Saxe Hildburghauſen, and his Dutcheſs, ſet out this Day for Germany.

Dreſden, Nov. 4, N. S. The Court continues its Reſidence at St. Hubertsbourg. They write from Moravia, that the Troops which were in Quarters in thoſe Parts had been reinforced with 12 Squadrons, and that four Regiments of Infantry had received Orders to poſt themſelves on the Frontiers of that Province; and it is ſaid the Court will ſoon give Orders for divers Forts to be erected on the Frontiers of Lithuania and Courland.

Duſſeldorp, Nov. 4, N. S. The Recruits which have been raiſed in the Empire, and in ſeveral Places of this Neighbourhood, march off from hence ſucceſſively towards the Briſgaw, which makes it believed they are intended to compleat the Imperial Troops in Italy.

Paris, Nov. 7, N. S. The King propoſes to ſet out on the 13th Inſtant for Choiſy, where he intends to ſpend two or three Days, after which he will go to the Caſtle of Trianon, and from thence to Verſailles for the Winter.

Berlin, Nov. 8, N. S. On the 4th Inſtant his Majeſty came hither from Potzdam, and ſoon after his Arrival gave Audience to Baron de Roſencrantz, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, who then preſented his Credential Letters; and the next Day he had his Audience of the two Queens, and of the Prince and Princeſs of Pruſſia. The 5th his Majeſty ſet out on his Return to Potzdam, where he propoſes to ſtay ſome Time, before he comes to reſide here for the Winter.

Hambourg, Nov. 11, N. S. The Duke of Hildsburghauſen, with the Princeſs Royal, his new Conſort, and Siſter to the King of Denmark, arrived laſt Night at Altona. They have been complimented To-day by Deputies from this City, and their Highneſſes will proceed on their Journey, in a few Days, to the Duke's Place of Reſidence.

Hague, Nov. 14, *N. and then ſet out for Groninguen. On the 12th at Night her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange, with the Prince Hereditary, and the Princeſs Caroline, lay at Kampen, and Yeſterday ſhe continued her Journey by Oranje Wout for Leuwarden, where we imagine her Highneſs will arrive as this Night. The Prince of Bade Baden has taken the Oath of Lieutenant General of Infantry before the Aſſembly of their High Mightineſſes. His Serene Highneſs the Prince Stadtholder, before his Departure for Leuwarden, made a great Promotion of Military Officers. By Letters from Madrid we learn, that the Court had reſolved to augment the Number of Troops deſigned for the Caraccas with a Thouſand Men, in order to puniſh thoſe who have preſumed by Force to drive off the Agents of the Guipuſcoa Company eſtabliſhed there by the King's Authority. The Troops intended for this Expedition will now conſiſt of 3000 Men, who are to aſſemble at Cadiz in order to go on board the Tranſports, which will be convoyed to the Caraccas by ſome Men of War. The ſame Letters ſay, that the Court of Spain had received an Account from Seville, that a Regiſter Ship from Buenos Ayres was arrived there with Advice, that the two Men of War which lately came into that Port with the Treaſure on board from Lima, were not as yet in a Condition to put to Sea for Want of Sailors. By Letters from Lisbon we are informed, that a Regiſter Ship, named the St. Joſeph, was put into that Port, bound from La Vera Cruz for Cadiz, having near 1,500,000 Pieces of Eight on board, beſides a valuable Cargo of Goods.
